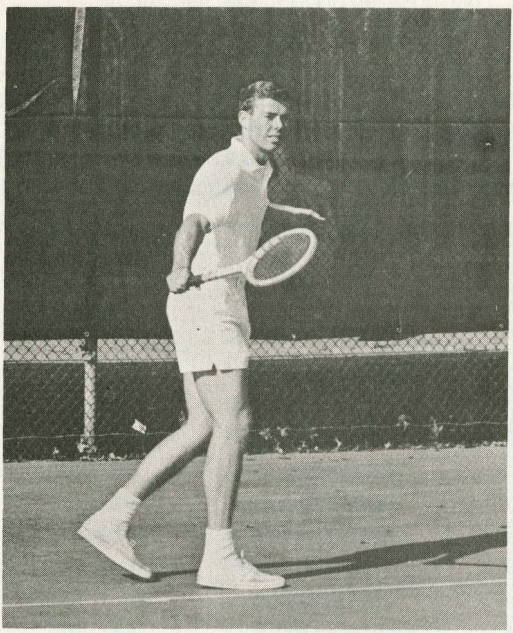
UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND TENNIS 1970



DAVID BENNETT

HEAD COACH
DOYLE ROYAL

OUTLOOK

In twenty-two seasons as tennis coach, Doyle Royal has always enjoyed a winning season but 1970 may prove to be his most difficult test.

The first two players of last year's 9-5 squad, Dave Werchen and Fulton Liss, have graduated. Werchen won nine of fourteen matches last season, Liss took ten of fourteen. The Werchen-Liss doubles team won seven, lost five, and tied one.

"Our aim is always a winning season," says Royal, "but the team appears to be somewhat weaker overall than last year."

Maryland finished sixth in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament last season. Royal figures that North Carolina will be the ACC power and that four other contenders will be nearly even, close behind the Tar Heels.

Senior Dave Bennett will be the number one player. Bennett earned a letter in 1968 and won twelve of 13 matches as the Terps' number four player. Bennett sat out the 1969 season.

Senior Ray Buck-Lew (8-6 last season) will play number two and sophomore Gene Speni

(5-7) will become number three. Both are lettermen.

Beyond the first three players, however, the lineup is tentative. At the opening of the season junior letterman Andy Cohen, sophomore letterman Neil Paterson, and freshman Gary Silverman complete the first six, in that order.

Freshman James Wesner and sophomore John Beck may challenge for a playing position during the season.

The doubles teams will probably be Bennett-Buck-Lew, Speni-Cohen, and Paterson with either Silverman or Wesner.
